

A Horizon Europe - funded project delivering practitioner-orientated change to the standardisation arena in the field of European Disaster Risk Resilience and CBRN-E

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The world and our societies are facing growing risks from anthropogenic threats and natural hazards, which call for enhanced capabilities in risk and resilience management and governance.

Standards can help promote optimum community benefits, as they stem from consolidated results of experience, science and technology, which are established by consensus and approved by a recognised body.

PEERS EXPECTED OUTCOMES

BUILDING AN INTEGRATED COMMUNITY OF DISASTER RISK RESILIENCE AND CBRN-E EXPERTS

STRENGTHENING EU PREPAREDNESS AND
RESPONSE IN DISASTER RISK
RESILIENCE AND CBRN-E

ADVANCING AND REINFORCING THE EU
OPERATIONAL SAFETY AND SECURITY POLICIES

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon Europe research and innovation programme under the Grant Agreement No. 101074040.

How we will make change happen developing a practitioner-driven business-oriented ecosystem based on existing technical, technological, semantic and operational needs

- Pre-alpha and three prototype versions (α , β , γ)
- User-centred functionalities
- Integration capabilities to existing community-building platforms (e.g., CMINE, EFFIS, CAMS)
- e-Learning support
- Better Practice Guide initiative
- Data visualisation and gamification
- Three demonstrators showing how the ecosystem works

PEERS PARTNERS

PEERS project is coordinated by KPMG Future Analytics and consists of a complementary consortium of nine partners including Europe's leading intelligence in resilience, the Resilience Advisors Network, two national standardisation bodies (UNMZ/CAS, MSZT), a research centre (FORMIT), a university (the University of Galway), two innovative SMEs (TFC Research and Innovation Limited and Székely Family & Co. Non-profit Llc.), and FIPRA International, a leading public affairs consultancy with a strong CBRN-E understanding. All partners are acting in solidarity for positive change to the standardisation process in line with the needs of policymakers and practitioners.
